Dear Ra;
 I've known you
 for some time now
 and even if we did have a few scrapes
 when we were little
 I really think you're

DEDICATION

To you, the Bullpups,
For your outstanding playing,
We dedicate this book.

"HAIL, SAN

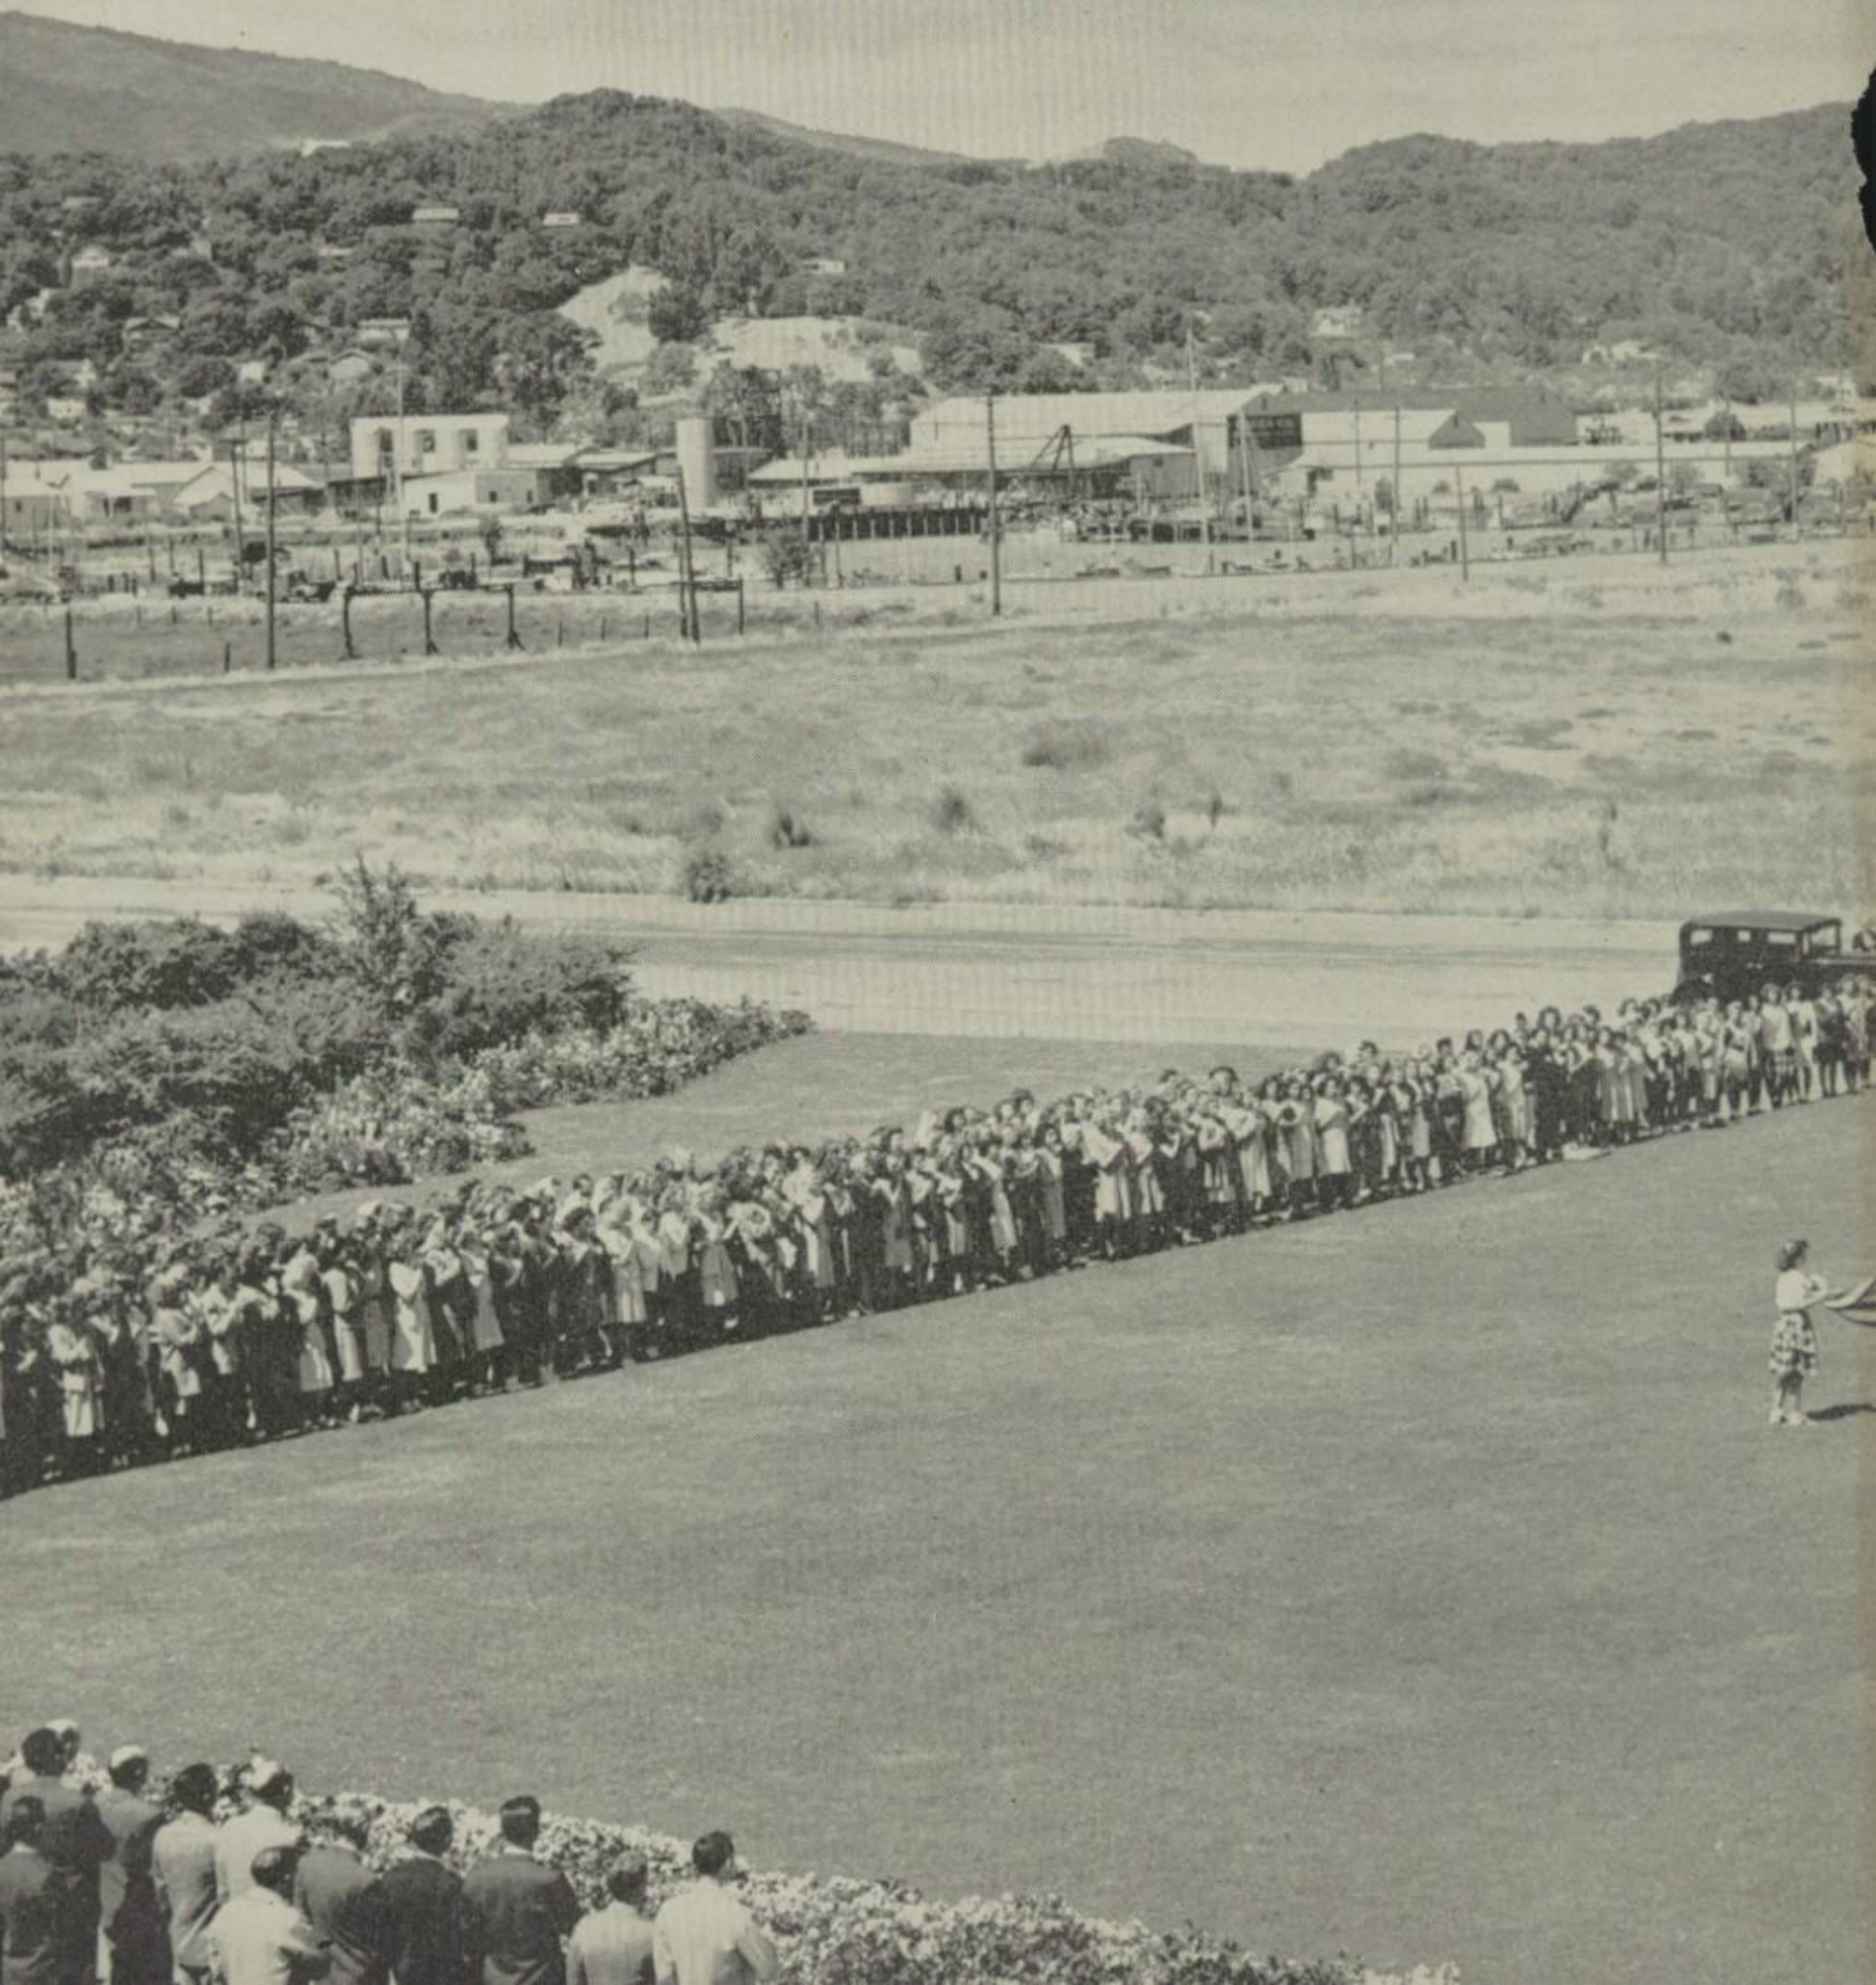

From the shores of San Francisco Bay,

To Pacific's mighty swell,

Let the echoes ring.

As we proudly sing—

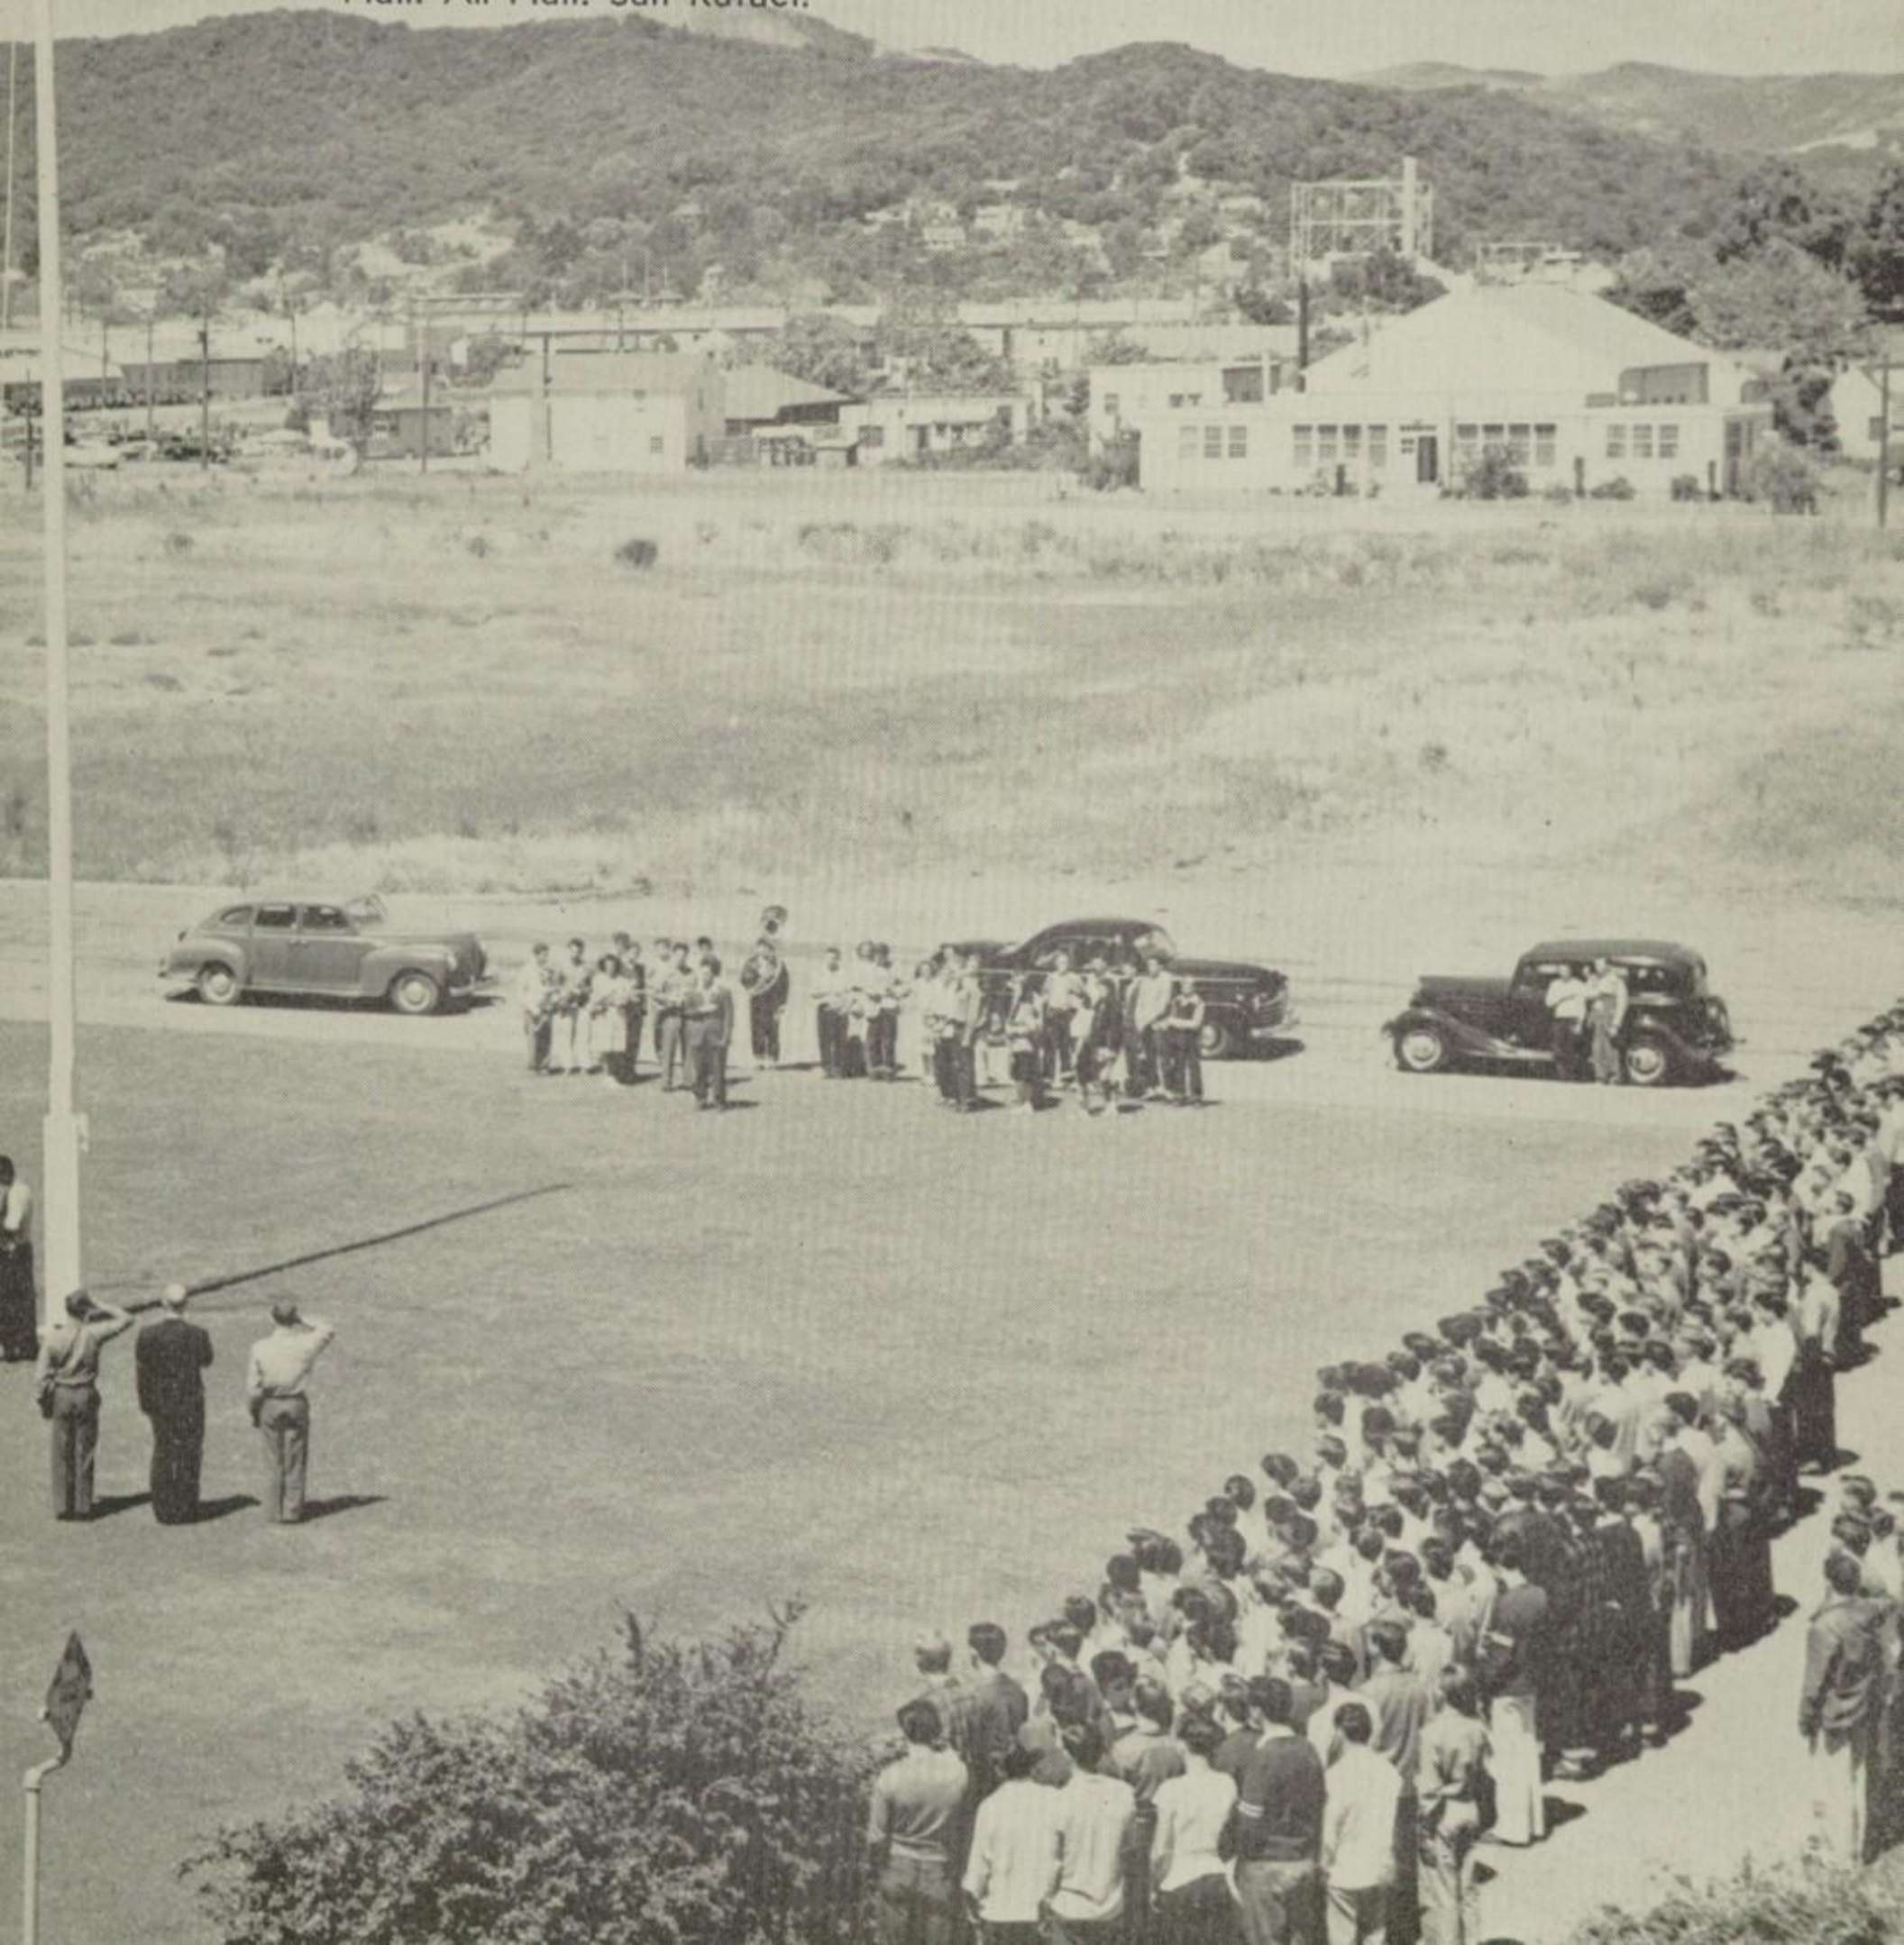

Hail! San Rafael.

RAFAEL''

Through the years ahead,
Thy fame will grow
In our hearts, thy precepts dwell,
And along life's ways,
Will sound thy praise—

Hail! All Hail! San Rafael!

Fall

The senior class of '47 held their first and only fall meeting in November to discuss the wearing of caps and gowns.

Members of the senior class that distinguished themselves in the fall term included: Charles Richesin and Barbara Nilsen who have earned Distinguished Service Medals, and will have their names engraved on the Distinguished Service Shield in the front hall. Tui Wong and Barbara Rowan have earned Honor awards.

Gilbert Boyd, Dolores Grossi, Anne Marie Honatius, and Carla Fordyce, fall Girls' League President, were fall members of the Scholarship Society.

Charlie Richesin won the 8-mile Dipsea Race around Mt. Tamalpais, running against a former Olympic Champion and a college champion.

Al De Rosa and Mac Micheletti will be sorely missed next year by the Music Department. Al played the trombone, baritone, trumpet, and melophone, while "Mac" played the saxophone.

Spring

The senior standing committee acts in the position of an advance planning committee. All of the social activities of the senior class come under it. Among these activities are the senior ball, a class picnic, a swimming party and various other activities which have not been planned as yet. The committee also helps select samples of announcements which the senior class as a whole votes on. Meetings of the committee are held whenever it is necessary to consider important business.

The suggestions made by the members are passed on to the seniors and a vote is taken on important issues. In addition to the social events staged last year the committee plans on having something new in the way of dances. These dances will be sponsored by the senior class to raise money for their treasury.

The senior standing committee is an integral part of the senior class as it acts on ideas presented to them and prepares them so the senior class can vote on them.

The committee is under the advisorship of Mr. Dresia.

S E N I O R S

PAUL BURGER

Quite a character is Paul,
As he prances down the hall.

ALMA BYNUM

Alma with the light brown curls,
Is really tops with all the girls.

CLAUDIO ARROYO

Tall and dark is this boy Claude,
His friendship is genuine, not a fraud.

RACHEL NEWELL

Rachel always gets her A's
For this we give her our praise.

DAVE FORD

Dave's certainly the personality boy,
He's not a bit loud, neither is he coy.

TUI WONG

If it weren't for industrious Tui,
Our school bank would go "kafloey".

DICK CLARK

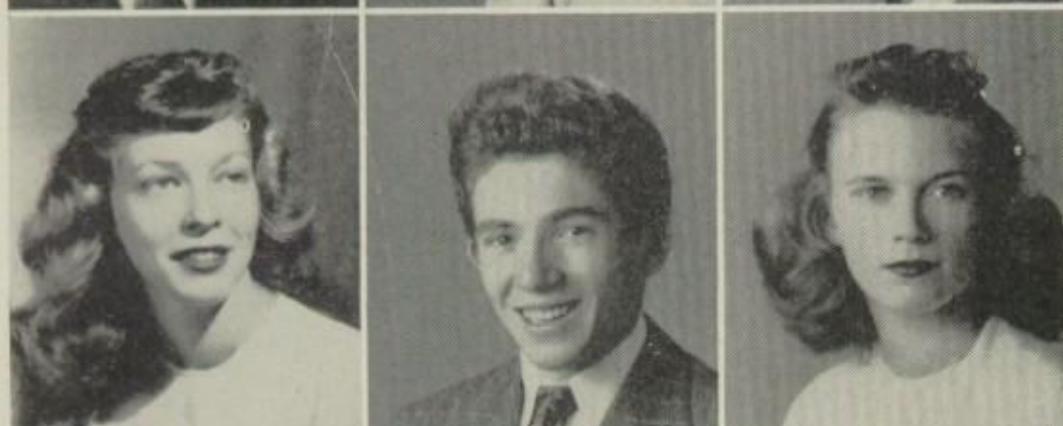

This football player Dick is always jolly
Especially when with his little "Dolly".

LOIS JACOBSON

Lois wears her chevron with pride,
In hopes that someday she may be a bride.

LISTON SABRAW

Liston's the boy—he sure likes red hair,
His life is free from worry and care.

FRANCES LAMBDIN

Fran, that wonderful girl of our dreams,
Has all the boys all droolin so it seems.

JOHN MENDONSA

Johnny's the boy—he's really on the beam,
When they see him, all the girls scream.

VIRGINIA ANDERSON

Virginia's the gal—she's got what it takes,
But, oh my gosh, you should taste
her cakes.

CHARLES RICHESIN

Charlie we know from a long way back,
He likes sports and majors in track.

SUE SMITH

Sue Smith is the gal that's hard to beat,
In office practice, her greatest feat.

CLAUDIS BANKS

Claudis Banks, everyone's friend,
If in trouble, a helping hand he'll lend.

COLE BLEASE

Cole, our senior prexy serves,
My that man sure knows his curves!

BECKY McCORMACK

Becky is one of the shyest girls found, But when with
Sue, she sure gets around,

ALFRED TONG

Al's the boy who from Hawaii came, He sure can play
a good basketball game.

MARIE HOWE

Queenie's a member of Les Couts, Out of her, we get quite a boot.

RAY JOHNSON

Ray Johnson sure likes flowers, But above all, his personality towers.

LA RUE TEETS

Small, cute, and quite a trick. My! that girl is plenty slick.

PAUL WARE

A trusty friend and one that's true, Paul always has a smile
for you.

GENEVIEVE HILDRETH

Down through the ages there have been great men, but as for typists, there's only one Gen.

RENNIE HORVATH

"Anchor's Away" is the song
for Rennie, When you speak of friends, he has many.

JAMESINA KEETON

Some like 'em tall, some like 'em wavy, But take it from Jimmy, she likes the Navy.

EDDIE HANSEN

There are birds in the sky and bugs in the ground. But everybody's happy when Eddie's around.

ANNE KING

Ann's the one with the beautiful hair, You can see her and George anywhere.

CLASS OF 1947

S E N I O R S

LOUIS MERLA

Louis Merla is rather silly; Maybe his name should have been Willy.

RUTH SULLIVAN

Ruthie Sullivan, a typical Irish lass; Is one of the best seniors in our class.

ARTHUR NEWTON

Here's to Artie who's always driving cars; Who knows but someday he might end up in Mars!

SHIRLEY AGNELLO*

Good at sports and good at art; Rest assured she'll do her part.

GARY MOREY

Gary Morey from S.R. comes; Here's to the boy who plays the drums.

CARLA FORDYCE

All the guys around school stare, At Carla Fordyce's natural curly hair.

ROBERT LEE

He's the guy, this Robert Lee, That all the girls love to see.

ANNA DIECKMANN

Anna's the girl that gets around; Yes, she works in the "lost and found".

KENTON STUVE

She's a real sugar with plenty of pep.

DICK GIUDICI

"Open the Door Richard" is quite the song,
With Dick at the door you can't go wrong.

ROSE MAZZOLINI

There are lots of trees and lots of posies
But you'll agree there aren't many Rosies.

PAUL SASSE

My biggest ambition says Paul Sasse
Is to be at the head of my class.

BETTY ROGERS

Betty's as shy as the birds in the skies,
But, oh, have you seen the stars in her eyes!

ROY OLSON

Roy is handsome and so full of zest
When looking for Roy, look among the best.

GENEVIEVE SIEBOLDT

Gen is cute and Gen is shy,
But Gen and the boys, my, oh my!

EARL WHITE

The boy who studies hard to be bright,
Is the boy who's known as Earl White.

DORIS HILDEBRAND

Though Doris is quiet and Doris is shy,
She's not one who lets life roll by.

FRED CASO

Fred is the boy with the curly hair,
And, girls, a gold football he does wear.

DOROTHY JOHNSON

She wears her ring with pride,
And nothing does she try to hide.

RAY CIRBY

A tall guy is this fellow Cirby
Can't you just see him in a derby.

SALLY HENFLING

"If it's Borden's, it's got to be good."
If you don't know Sally, you really should.

JOE PEDROLI

Joe is happiest when in his car,
Even if he knows it won't go far.

CLASS OF 1947

SENIORS

BOB FRANZEL

The girls try hard to win him over
But he's immune, this Casanova.

JOAN GUGEL

Making speeches is her feature,
Joan is such a busy creature.

LELAND AHERN

He's as free as a fish in a brook,
But, oh, that guy when he gets that look.

DANA BARTLETT

Dana's our boy, he's quite a man,
But when it comes to girls, he has no ban.

MERRIE MCGINNIS

When they say "neat as a pin"
They mean Merrie who's always trim.

BEN HARTSKE

A tumbler great is Bennie,
And he's as bright as a new penny.

JACK GRAHAM*

After seeing Jack, there's nothing to say,
But hula, hula, and dream away.

CLASS OF 1947

... Class

FRESHMAN YEAR

The Senior Class of 1947 entered San Rafael High School in 1943, and anticipated a happy four years ahead of them.

To welcome the class, the Freshmen were given the Freshmen Reception.

As Freshmen we do remember our Student Body President, John Rossi, with his bright red hair.

To better know our schoolmates, a "Hello Day" was held in which everyone got as many signatures as possible.

The dances during our Freshman year included the Barn Dance, Christmas Dance, and the Cotton Ball.

The Girls' Jinx was given, and much enthusiasm was shown by all who attended and had a good time.

The boys were given other kinds of entertainment to familiarize them with the school.

We all experienced our first formal in San Rafael High School and it was a real success. It was called the "Sweetheart's Prom."

Ed Dillman was elected President on February 3, when he defeated Connie Morey, his final opponent.

So ends our Freshman year, with everyone anticipating the next semester when we would be "THE SOPHOMORES".

OUR SOPHOMORE YEAR 1944-1945

The sophomore year in high school and college, we recognize, as did last year's senior class, as the one least remembered in after years. Therefore, like the previous class, our "Book of Memories" has little to record during the months of our sophomore year.

We returned and welcomed our new fall Student Body President, Don Collins.

San Rafael High Bulldogs defeated Tam 20-12, and won the North Bay League Championship. The last Varsity Championship dated back to 1937, when we tied for the North Bay League title.

We, under the direction of Miss Cunningham and sponsored by the P.-T.A., had the Saturday dances at the E. Street Grammar School going again with interest shown by the students.

A very successful play was staged on February 2. It was called, "And Came the Spring."

The retiring Student Body President turned the gavel over to the newly-elected president, Bill Baglietto.

Through the efforts of Dolores Cooper and Earl White of our class, who were among the chairmen on the student committee, we opened the "Teen Age Canteen" on February 24th, which was a very memorable event.

An enthusiastic group of students formed a music club called the "Nu Beta Sigma".

A memorial assembly was held on April 18, 1945, in honor of Major Cuffe who, because of his friendliness, was liked by everyone.

The whole Student Body participated in the drive for old clothes for the ruined countries of Europe. Altogether the students gathered 6,516 pounds, which was 1,516 pounds over our set quota.

During the San Rafael City Schools Bond Drive, our Sophomore class came in second place.

JUNIOR YEAR

We came back to school again in September of 1945 as Juniors, happy that the actual firing in World War II had ceased, and with Franco Giudici as Prexy.

The first Red 'n' White came out on September 19, 1945, with Sheila McKinney its editor, and the paper ready for a big year at San Rafael High.

Our class organized October 29, 1945, with Mr. Dresia as Junior advisor. Tex Richesin was elected President; Tui Wong, Girls' Vice-President; Del Hughes, Boys' Vice-President; Liston Sabraw, Secretary; and Dana Bartlett as Treasurer.

Football closed for the season with the Bulldogs defeating the Tam Indians 14 to 6 in a hard-fought game.

One rainy day the "Big Six", two of whom were Juniors, made a startling announcement to the school—they had discovered a swimming pool between High Street and the U.S.O. However, upon closer inspection, it turned out to be nothing but a lowly mud puddle.

The spring semester started out with Dick Caletti elected as new Student Body President.

Also, our new Junior Prexy, Bob Duncan.

The Mid-Winter Formal was held on January 26, 1946, at the Ross Community House which was sponsored by the Les Couturieres and Ra Ravas.

The Clothing Drive Contest in February of '46 was won by the Frosh, but the Juniors, who were at the bottom of the list of classes in the earlier stages of the drive, came out second. Not bad!

Senior sweaters for the class were discussed

History

at a Junior Class meeting so that we might have them at the beginning of our fall semester.

A member of our class, Dave Ford, was chosen winner of the Lions' Speech Contest and was presented with a wrist watch. Three other competed in this contest, two of them being Juniors, Dolores Cooper and Cole Blease.

The Junior editors published one issue of the Red 'n' White to get an idea of the future job ahead of us. Alice Borzini, Liston Sabraw, and Kenton Stuve were those in line for taking over in their senior year.

The annual County Fair Day and Barn Dance took place on March the 29th, which was, and always has been, a success.

The smallpox epidemic in the Bay Area was handled by the schools, and free shots to prevent smallpox were given to all of us who had our parents' consent.

The all important Bond Election, in which the students canvassed the town to get the people to vote, was passed and now our dreams will come true.

The Junior-Senior Prom was held on June 7th. This year both dances were combined, making it one big dance.

So we turned our backs upon our Junior year and faced forward toward the payoff, the culmination of our years of hard labor, our graduation from high school.

SENIOR YEAR 1946-1947

Our Senior Year rolled around with Rich Giudici as Prexy and all of us wearing our Senior sweaters, either red or white.

The enrollment the first week of school showed the total number of boys 28 more than that of the girls. Pretty unusual!

We organized our class by electing Charles Richesin as President, Liston Sabraw as Boys' Vice-President, and Tui Wong as Girls' Vice-President.

Our football season ended successfully by our taking the Lightweight and Varsity football games away from our rival Tamites. This year's "Big Game" was our seventh successive win over our traditional "enemy". The Lightweight team covered itself with glory during the football season, ending with a perfect score, having won the N.B.L. Championship. Many of those on the team later received the coveted gold footballs they had so valiantly fought for. The teams were later honored by a turkey dinner and dance. The Majorettes were stunning in their new costumes at the games this year.

Three tragedies that left the whole school stunned and feeling a deep loss were the untimely deaths of two of our fellow Seniors, Jim Hurt and Jack West, both victims of automobile accidents, and that of Mr. James Haynes who had resigned because of ill health the previous term.

November arrived and our Senior pictures were taken. Some of the class had them taken in cap and gown in which the class will graduate in June.

Also this year saw changes in girls' uniform. At the polls they voted to wear colored sweaters. We had discussed this change for several years and finally decided the issue.

Our eighth and final semester brought Dave Ford as our new Student Body President. Cole Blease was elected our new Senior Class President.

Early in the spring semester we were measured for our caps and gowns, one of the many things to be taken care of in preparation for graduation.

This year it seemed as though there were quite a few dances and good ones, too, such as the Red 'n' White, The Hop, Blossom Time, and the Barn Dance, not to mention many others.

So far, the improvements noted as a result of the bond election have been a new lighting system in portions of the buildings and venetian blinds appearing at some of the windows.

Red 'n' White garbage cans made their appearance on High Street and some on the beaten path, to keep such things as lunch bags, banana peels, etc., from detracting from the neat appearance of our school.

Speaking of High Street, one of the notable changes that took place our last semester was the long line of hot rods, jeeps and civilized looking cars parked in spaces provided for them by the city street department.

The concluding social functions of our Senior year were the Mothers' Tea and the Senior Ball, put on by the combined Junior and Senior classes.

To some, Friday the Thirteenth is most unlucky, but to the graduating class of '47 it is our lucky day—spelling "finis" to four years of happy days, hard study, and work well done—we hope!

To you, the new up-and-coming Seniors, we leave the duty of carrying on the traditions, privileges and honors of San Rafael High. May you accomplish all this with due solemnity and devotion to our Alma Mater.

Dear Lamona,
I really don't know you
to well but I think you are sure.

Please try for our wonderful club - the La Raros. You'd make a good worker & a swell friend for all of us.

May you enjoy your high school days. Love,
Judy DeLugh

Junior Class

FALL

This semester several Junior meetings were held. The selling of cokes was discussed but nothing was done about it. We agreed to hold noon dances, and one was held on Friday, November 21. The door prize was a free Searchlight. The discussion of senior sweaters was the subject of our last fall meeting.

SPRING

During the spring semester the class voted on senior sweaters and decided to change the traditional red and white to pearl grey and red.

In addition to noon dances, the Juniors sponsored the Junior-Senior dance at the end of the year.

Mr. James Gulick is the class advisor.

Sophomore Class

The sophomores began the year by the usual method of electing class officers. Richard De Tata was the class' choice for president.

Under the capable leadership of President De Tata the class organized and gave a Sophomore Dance. This evening proved to be a memorable and enjoyable one for the class and their guests.

A few weeks later, the sophomore paper was published and carried the announcement of a contest to pick the proper name for the paper.

There were thirteen sophomore boys on the San Rafael championship Bullpups' football team. Later in the year eight more sophomore boys went out for basketball.

We rated, too, in scholarship. In the fall of '46, eleven of the twenty-one members of the Scholarship Society were sophomores.

SPRING

On February 7th we nominated spring officers. Bruno Franchetti was chosen as president. Bruno reports that many members of his class are trackmen and baseball players. Plans are in the offing for a sophomore dance and radio skit. Bob Weber, Dick De Tata, and Sheridan Cannaday are writing the script.

This spring term exactly 50% of the membership of the Scholarship Society is made up of sophomores. Miss Bolton is the class advisor.

Student Body

Under the direction of President Richard Giudici, the Executive Committee and Mr. Estes, the fall Senate of 1946 may be called a successful one.

Soon after the Executive Committee was installed and the new Senators were chosen, work was started on the Annual Freshman Reception which proved quite a success.

Several successful drives were also carried on throughout the semester, one for the March of Dimes and also one for the National Transcribers' Society. A blind Assembly was also held with proceeds going to the Recreational Center for the Blind in San Francisco. Around Christmas the Executive Committee decorated a Christmas tree for the center hall and led a drive to collect gifts for wounded servicemen.

The biggest undertaking for this term was, however, the magazine drive sponsored by the Curtis Publishing Company. In this drive the students went from door to door selling subscriptions, with 50% of the money collected going toward the publication of this annual. All together we collected $3,018.00. Our goal was $3,000.00.

Officers

With the spring semester came elections and the decision by President Dave Ford that the constitution should be revised. This was done with the assistance of the Constitution Revision Committee, which was comprised of students and faculty members.

A new executive office, that of Commissioner of Social Activities, was introduced for the first time during this spring semester.

In addition to their other duties, the boys' and girls' vice-presidents, Dave Gotelli and Barbara Rowan, led Senate meetings for experience, so that either one of them could take over in case of the absence of the president.

With the full cooperation of president, adviser, executive committee, and senate, a successful term was completed by the governing body of San Rafael High School.

Boys' Organization

The Boys' Board of Control with their advisor Mr. Mellen met on September 26 for their first meeting of the new semester.

The organization, as in the past, sponsored its annual "Hello Day" in September enabling the students to become better acquainted.

The boys' freshman-transfer reception held in October provided entertainment with movies followed by refreshments.

Later on in the semester a boys' meeting was held in the gym with Mr. Hines' tumblers as the main attraction.

December will best be remembered for the Christmas Dance with its fourteen-piece, all-girl orchestra and festive holiday decorations.

In January the boys featured a noon assembly of sports movies, for all boys.

"Clean-Up Day" on March 7th was accomplished in record time due to the many red and white garbage cans donated to the school by the Boys' Organization in February.

The last activity of the year was the annual "Sports Nite" held on May 23. As always it proved one of the most enjoyable events of the year.

The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Boys' Organization due to the close cooperation of the members.

Girls' League

First Girls' League meeting! President Carla Fordyce, just back from Girls' State, told her experiences.

New faces! Interesting girls! At the Transfer Luncheon we enjoyed memories of their former schools and first impressions of San Rafael.

The Comic strip Jinx! Clever skits, artistic decorations, really original costumes.

Elections! Marie Howe swept into the presidency. Marie has executive ability; meetings are snappy.

The Twin-Twirl Party! The girls came in pairs, dressed alike. Double or nothing!

Mothers' Tea—delightful program, plaudits and pride! Cabinet girls in formals, the patio gay with color, the girls poised and gracious hostesses!

Searchlight Staff

The "BULLDOG", chosen as the theme for our 1947 Searchlight by Editor Dolores Cooper's staff, was carried out by Art Director Ruth Warner with Gary Cannaday, her assistant, doing the division pages, and Peggy McGlaufflin assisting her in the cartoons.

Barbara Nilsen, in charge of snaps and rhymes, was assisted by Alice Borzini and Ruth Warner in rhyming.

Joyce Coen, business manager for Mr. Costello, was assisted by Martha McRae in getting sponsors. Walter Lake donated his noon hour to ice cream sales to add to the Searchlight funds. Sue Smith was in charge of senior pictures; Genevieve Hildreth, senior history, assisted by Anne Marie Honatius; and Beverly Von Bima, group pictures.

The staff is greatly indebted to Mr. Estes for his fine photographs that required many hours of his time.

Red 'n' White Staff

Upholding its motto as a production "Of the students, by the students, and for the students," members of the Red 'n' White staff published the school paper, the "Red 'n' White," on a twice monthly basis for both fall and spring semesters under the supervision of Miss Ellen Bennett, Red 'n' White Advisor, and Liston Sabraw and Dot Thompson, fall and spring editors, respectively.

Special issues were published by the staffs for the annual Tamalpais "Big Game", Christmas, and Senior graduation. The special "Big Game" issue contained extra pictures, stories and features on both Varsity and Lightweight squads, while the Christmas edition contained four extra pages, and the Senior Edition was produced by the Junior Staff for next year.

During 1946-1947 the stagecraft and dramatic classes merged into a compact group under the direction of Miss Patricia O'Brien and Mr. Edward Day. The Theater Arts class learned not only the mechanics of acting, but also the art of painting scenery and makeup. In this way the class was able to cooperate with the school by making sets for other productions. An interesting course in makeup was given during a three-week period in which the members worked out their inhibitions on victims or else were themselves victimized character makeups; beards and moustaches were used to make the pupils appear old and senile or as historical personages and bums.

Two plays were presented publicly. "Elmer", a one-act play, was given before the assembly in November. It was well accepted for the audience could picture themselves in Elmer's boots frequently. The play showed the antics of a 14-year-old boy who resorted to drastic means in order to help his youngest and least spoiled sister to put it over on the older sisters. The parts were ably played by Ray Reed in the title role, Betty Matthieson, Naomi Eklund, Alfred Curry, Anne King, Ray Johnson, Dolly Paradis, Betty Arnold, and Gloria Schuyler.

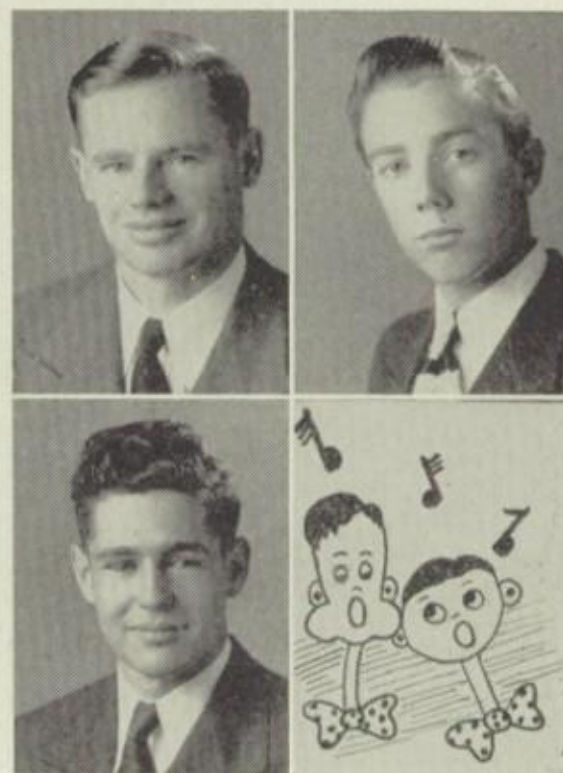

The cast of "This Being Young," the senior play, included Bob Anderson, Shirley Demaretti, Lee Jensen, Betty Matthieson, La Ru Teets, Anne King, Ray Reed, Bob Thompson, Naomi Eklund, Sheldon Stern, Sally Lueth, and Jim Yates.

Miss O'Brien and Mr. Day did a fine job of coaching the future "show-stoppers" and of designing sets for all their productions.

1. Mr. Smith, Advisor; 2. Dave Ford, Fall Assembly Commissioner; 3. Al DeRosa, Spring Assembly Commissioner.

A Commissioner of Assemblies must take his work very seriously. It involves the necessity of cooperating with those who work with him and securing their cooperation as well.

Dave Ford, Commissioner of Assemblies during the fall semester, aided in presenting numerous programs, some of which were outstanding successes.

The first such highly successful program was entitled "On the Set". The setting was that of a Hollywood movie set where scenes for different pictures were being taken. In this sequence a great deal of student talent was discovered.

The most spectacular of the programs sponsored by the Commissioner of Assemblies and the Assembly Committee proved to be the first half of the Christmas program, the second half of the program having been produced by the music department. The first part of the program consisted of a scene in a toy shop. As the curtain opened, music began and toy dolls awoke to act their parts. They represented everything from a jack-in-the-box accordionist to a choir boy singing Christmas Carols. As the toys went back to sleep the show closed with one of the dolls singing "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas." Al De Rosa became Commissioner of Assemblies for the spring semester and promptly selected a committee of interested students to aid him. The outstanding show of the spring season was a "Gay Nineties" program consisting of a variety of episodes cleverly spun together. Al was also in charge of providing entertainment for the North Bay League School Conference.

Each first period class has a salesman whose job is to collect the money for school savings every Tuesday morning, sell subscriptions to the Searchlight, and to collect money for charitable organizations, such as the Transcribers' Society for the Blind, March of Dimes and Red Cross.

Tui Wong acts as chairman for the first period salesman. Mr. Simontacchi is the advisor. During the year they acted as chairmen of their first period classes for the Searchlight Fund Magazine Drive.

WEEBIES

Les Couturieres

Les Couturieres began a very active year with the election of new members. A few weeks later they were initiated and became official members at a formal installation ceremony.

The customary Red Cross drive for membership was conducted in November with Les Couturiere members acting as collectors.

Early in February Luggage Day was held on two successive days. It was a great success.

Again new members were elected and their initiation followed in a month with a dinner after the initiation.

Early in the spring an Apple Day was held at which apples and apple products were sold.

Ra Ravas

Selling football programs at all home games started off a year cram full of activities for the Ra Ravas. Next on the agenda was a trip to Berkeley to witness the football game between Cal and U.C.L.A. Then came such activities as initiation, teas, and a progressive dinner before the Jinx. As in the past the Rare Birds joined ranks with the Les Couts to sponsor the football dinner and dance. A Christmas breakfast given by the new members concluded the fall semester.

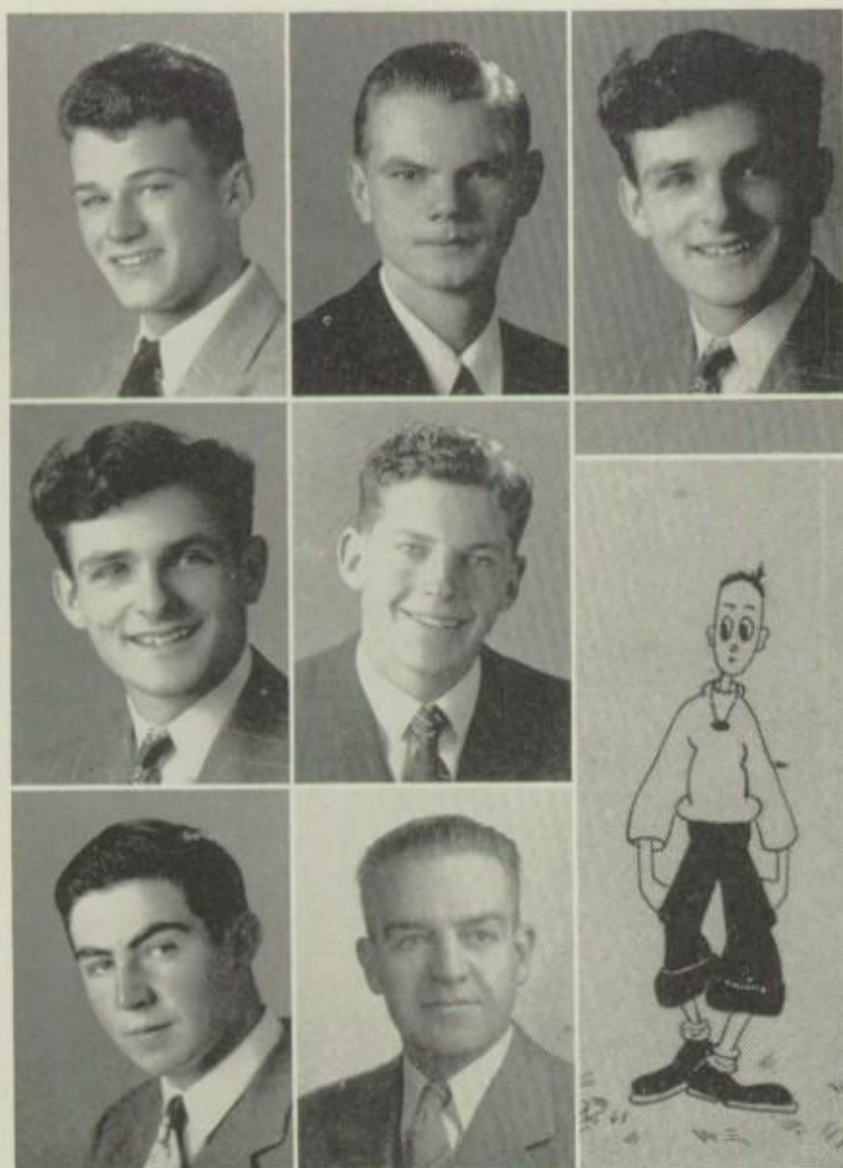

First on the calendar for the spring semester was the weekend spent at Soda Springs enjoying snow sports. Again combining with the Les Couts, the spring formal, "Blossom Time", was given. Next came the Valentine Tea to get acquainted with applicants for membership, then a dinner by the new members. Then came the Barn Dance and Fair Day, Ra Ravas' Convention with Santa Rosa and Sonoma, Installation, and "Senior Farewell."

Sportsmen

Members of the Sportsmen's Club of San Rafael High School completed two semesters of activities, highlighted by the Sportsmen's Frolic and many other annual functions. A few activities were instituted under the leadership of the fall president, Del Hughes, and spring prexy, Liston Sabraw.

The commencement of school in the fall saw eight new members initiated and the holding of the annual Sportsmen's Banquet.

Mid-term saw seven more new members brought into the organization at the club's second initiation. This was followed by a trip to the snow in the High Sierras. The Sportsmen sponsored faculty-student basketball games, the annual Sportsmen's Frolic, and a second banquet closed the spring semester's activities.

Sigma Gamma

During the fall semester, the Sigma Gamma, girls' sports club, achieved several projects. New president for the semester was Eleanor Mastrup; vice-president, Betty Matthiesen; secretary, Alice Westlund; treasurer, Mary Amaral. The annual initiation and new member dinner was held at the home of new club advisor, Miss Roberta Ramsay. A surprise shower was given in honor of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Beach, gym teacher. Club members presented a skit for the girls' Jinx, and gave a slumber party for graduating member Mary Amaral.

The spring semester brought forth new officers and members. President, Betty Matthiesen; vice-president, Betty Rogers; secretary, Ethel Stanke; treasurer, Eleanor Amaral and scribe, Rodlyn Davis.

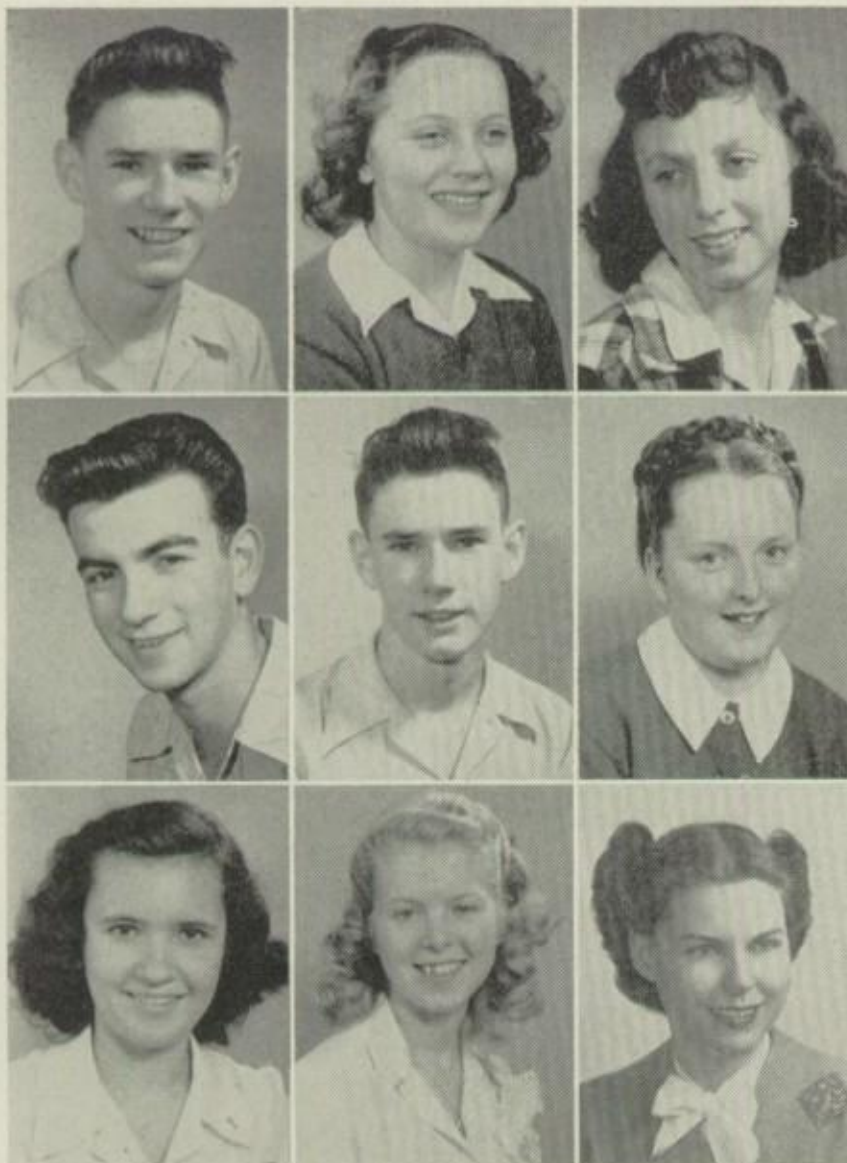

A skit was presented at the spring Jinx, and a trip to San Francisco was taken during March. The annual playday was held May 17 with a United Nations theme. Invitations were extended to all high schools in the N.B.L. and Marin County.

Scholarship Society

The motto of the Scholarship Society is "Scholarship for Service". Its most important service was the selling of refreshments at all home league football and basketball games and at the Freshman Reception in order to earn money for scholarships. These scholarships are awarded to outstanding members of the graduating class who need them to attend college. The club also sold at the Christmas dance and gave the profits to charity.

At the beginning of each semester an initiation-installation party was held to install the new officers and initiate the new members. Faculty and friends of the students were invited for an evening of fun and refreshments.

San Rafael's Scholarship Society is Chapter 62 of the California Scholarship Federation, a state-wide organization with branches in more than 350 high schools throughout California. The San Rafael chapter attended the district meeting of the Federation at Napa in February and the state meeting at Stockton in April.

School Secretaries

The School Secretaries of San Rafael High is a service club formed by the members of the Office Practice Class with Mrs. Boeken as advisor. The students get practical experience and confidence in doing clerical work and mimeographing of all sorts for the school and the community. Work is also done for local drives, and for such non-profit organizations as the P.T.A. units, churches, Red Cross, Campfire and Scouts.

Tui Wong is club president and Sue Smith, secretary. During the spring semester, Dolores Cooper was secretary to Miss O'Brien and Miss Ramsay; Genevieve Hildreth to Miss Turner and Mr. Estes; Helen Hill to Mrs. Gautschi, Mr. Smith and Mr. MacChesney; Rosemarie Lake to Mr. Mellen and Mr. Woelz; Rose Mazzolini to Miss Bolton and Mrs. White; Barbara Nilsen to Miss Newcomer and Dean Murray; Dolly Pedersen to Mr. Gulick and Mr. Thomson; Deloris Shields to Miss Beckwith and Miss Tasker; Suzanne Smith to Mr. Hildebrant and Mr. Paterson; Tui Wong to Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Simontacchi and Mr. Tardy; and Aileen Thompson to Miss Cunningham and Miss Bennett.

Alpha Kappa

The Alpha Kappa started the year out right by sponsoring cake sales to raise money to purchase a bench that is to be placed in the art patio for seniors only.

Their work meetings every Tuesday afternoon are spent making signs and decorations for the coming events. They may spend their time making various things for themselves when no project is set up for them.

The annual trip to San Francisco was held during the Easter vacation to see a musical show.

The club is open to anyone who has had a year of art with a B average with the exception of seniors who may qualify without this average.

The initiations are always a big event, with the initiates providing the entertainment for the old members during the dinner given for them.

The traditional Senior Farewell is usually held at Mrs. Lewis' home in Bayside Acres sometime during the summer or just before graduation.

Nu Beta Sigma

The Nu Beta Sigma was started by Genevieve Doose with Mr. David Kesler as the advisor. Genevieve also donated a plaque and gavel for the names of the presidents who are elected in the club each semester.

The first president was Genevieve Doose, then Leo Flynn, Bebe Milani, Eddie Hansen, and now Raphael Micheletti.

Nu Beta Sigma, which stands for Notes, Beats and Signatures, is a very active club. On November, 1946, they had initiations at the home of Wava Pogue in Novato; after the initiation, refreshments were served and games played. Those initiated were: Betty Ahern, Jane Graham, Jean Warner, Albert De Rosa, and Wally Steele.

The Nu Beta Sigma also sponsored a big sport dance which was called "The Hop."

Each year the club gives a scholarship in music to the most outstanding graduating student who is continuing music as a profession.

Rally Committee

Better rallies for the football and basketball season was the goal of the Rally Committee during the year. One of the most entertaining was the "Big Game Rally" which was directed by head yell leader Bennie Hartske. Competition among clubs was won by the Sportsmen with their pre-game locker-room skit. In this Jim Olson did his best to win an "Oscar" and Coach Miller accused Baxter of taking a shower to which he exclaimed, "Why, is there one missing?"

The Napa Rally introduced the great team of that city's educational institution. The lineup had such star performers as "Hitler" Monti, "Tarzan" Blumenfeld, "Adam" Reece, "Roosevelt" McPhail, and "Cupid" Weber who won everyone's heart.

"Petaluma Pete" was presented by three outstanding seniors, Jack Graham, George Casselberry, and Bob Duncan.

Successful rallies were also held for the Santa Rosa, Vallejo, and Analy games.

SPRING

One of the most successful rallies of the year was the "Shadow Rally" which was given for the Vallejo game. Everyone recognized "Lover" Leptien and his Virginia, as well as other outstanding figures of the school.

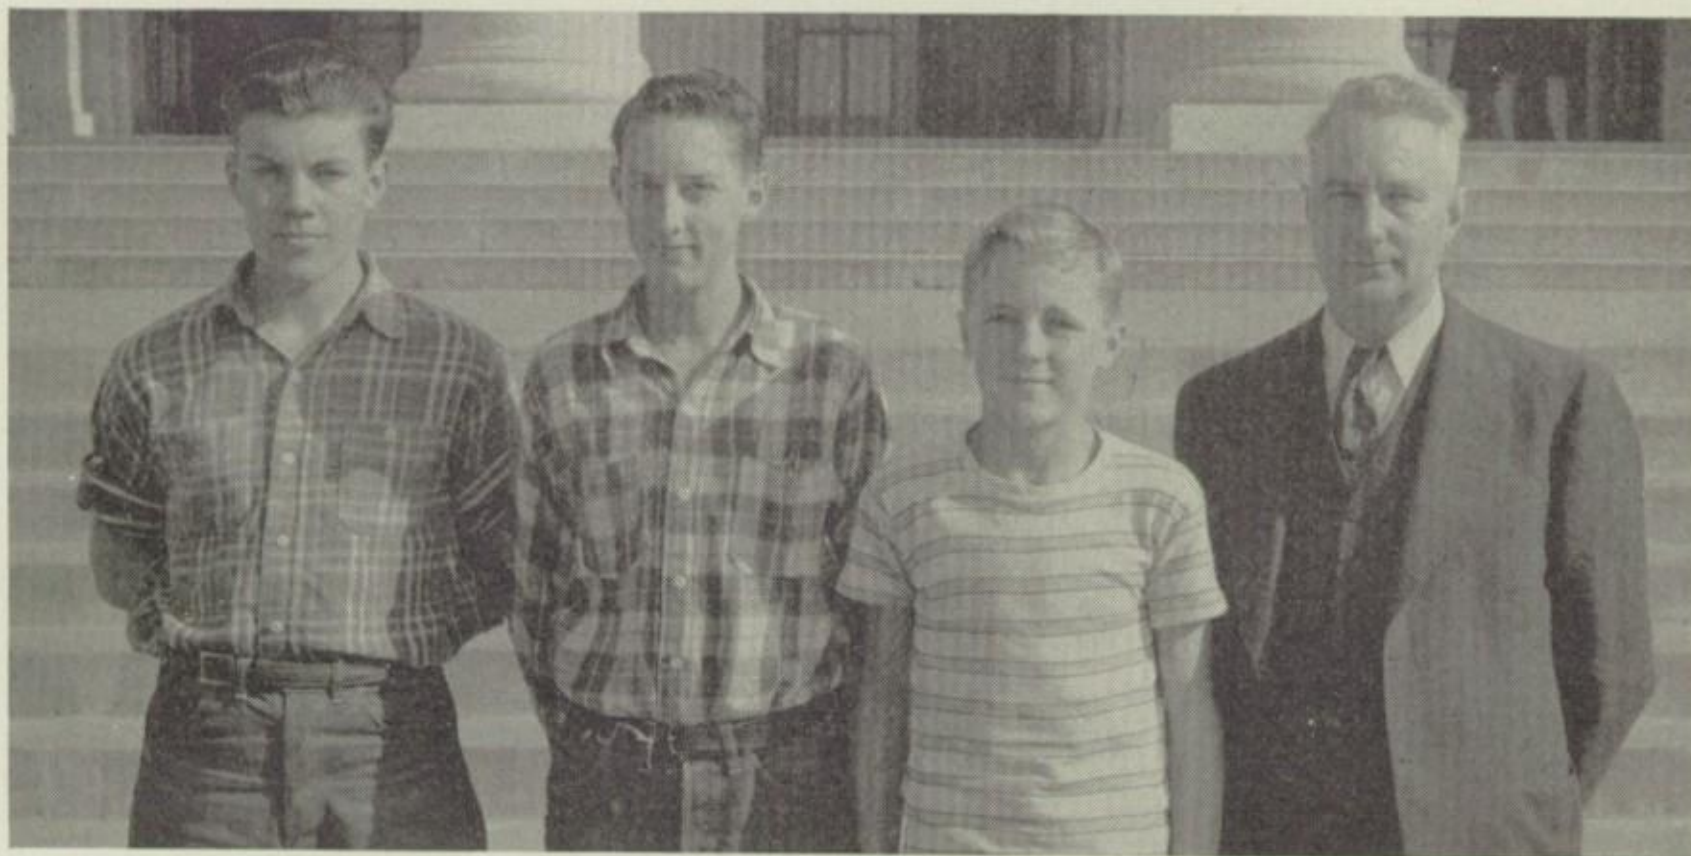

Credit should be given to San Rafael High School's three hard-working yell leaders, Wanda Duncan, Carrie Horvath, and Virginia Serna who did much to bolster the morale of the school.

Virginia Serna had charge and was mistress of ceremonies at a very successful Vallejo rally. Wanda Duncan had charge of the Napa rally, which was also a big hit. Carrie Horvath was in charge of the Tam assembly in which Dave Ford discussed school problems.

Marching Band

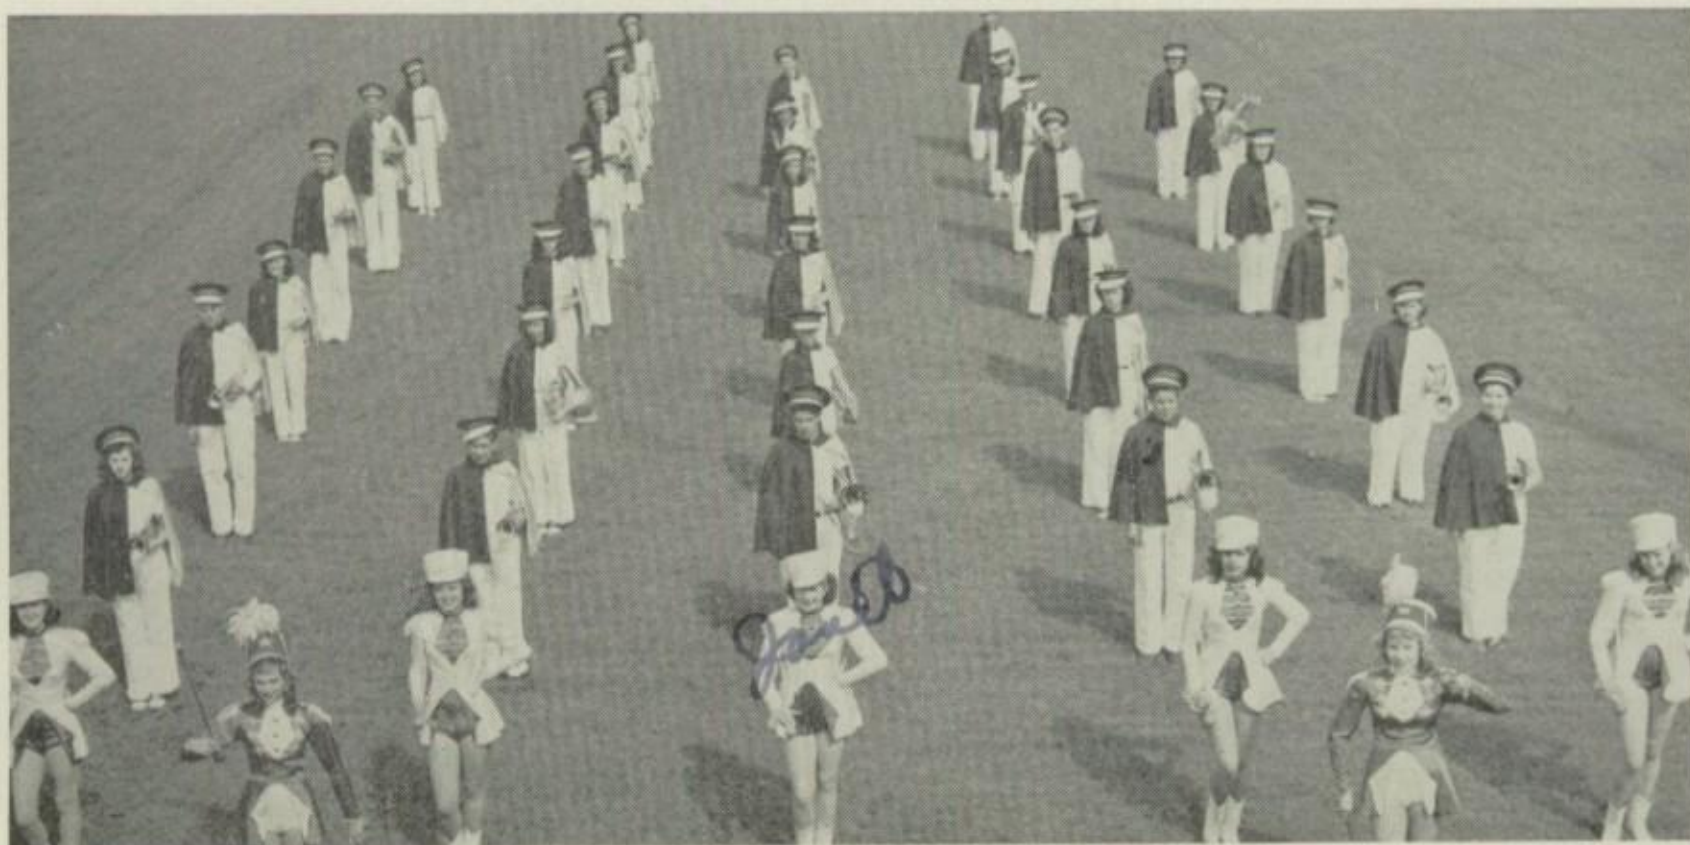

The Marching Band, under the direction of David Kesler, is composed of thirty-six players, six majorettes, and two majors.

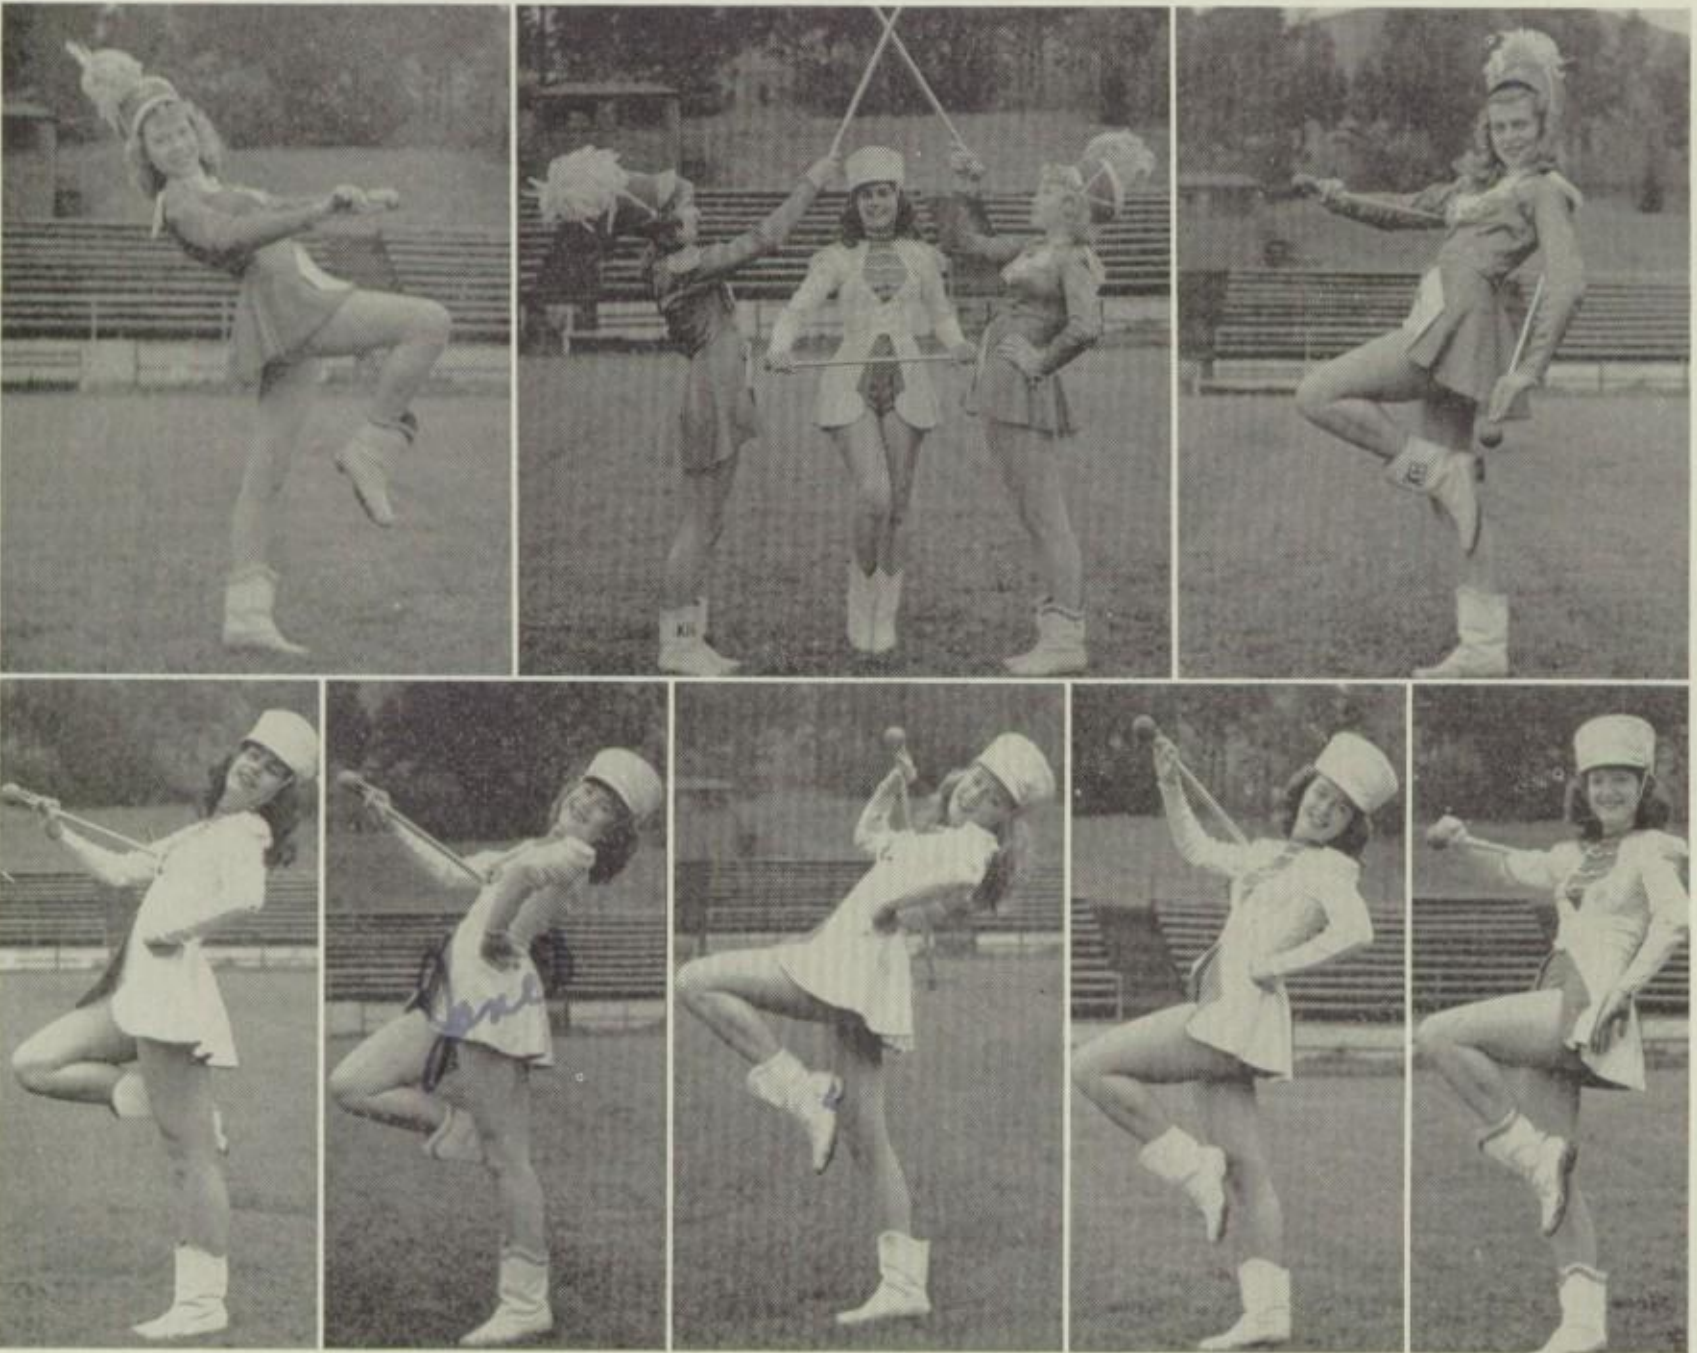

The officers of the Club are: Al DeRosa, president; Wally Steele, vice-president; Barbara Nilsen, secretary; and Paul Burger, librarian. All disciplinary matters are handled by the officers.

Awards are based on a point system. To receive a block, one must earn ninety per cent of the possible points.

This season the band played at Santa Rosa, San Rafael, and for the Tam game at Marin J.C.

One of the duties of the Marching Band has been to march in parades. For the past two years Tam has taken the trophy as best Junior Band in Marin County, but this year, good old S.R. came through with flying colors. If Tam had won the trophy this year they would have been entitled to retain it. However, thanks to the hard work of all the band members, San Rafael came out on top.

This is the first year San Rafael High School has had a choir. It is made up of 34 girls and 16 boys.

The choir was the first class to have court sessions, complete with judge, jury and prosecuting attorney. These court sessions were a very good way of organizing student government. They carried out the theme by writing their own constitution, "of the choir, by the choir, and for the choir."

The choir gave several home concerts and out-of-town concerts. They started with a concert at a Community Church in San Francisco. Then followed the annual Mid-winter Concert. Then came the out-of-town concerts at Novato, St. Vincent's School for Boys, and Vallejo. Then followed the programs given to the San Rafael High School student body and the E Street Grammar School students.

In the middle of the year, Mr. Kesler purchased choir robes and portable stands, both of which were badly needed by the choir.

The choir concluded their year of good harmony with the final Music Jamboree, June 6, 1947.

The advanced band, under the direction of David Kesler, is the mainstay of the instrumental department. All music classes are preparatory courses for admittance into the advanced band from which is selected the dance band, pep band and the marching band.

Each year the advanced band puts on two programs, the mid-winter concert and the spring jamboree. At our last concert the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," "Trojan Prince," "Dancing in the Dark," "Gremlin Patrol," "Come Sweet Death," and "His Honor."

With the 1946 football season came a fine new assistant coach, Mr. Alfred Thomson, to assist Coach Simontacchi. Their combination seems to have been a good luck charm because the lightweights won the championship this year of the North Bay League under the captaincy of Leo Andrade.

They started their season with a decided victory against Tam, our bitter rival. They went on to more victories and were scored against only a few times. They couldn't lose, so naturally they won the championship and all the boys are wearing those tell-tale gold footballs.

There were two bright spots in the 1946 football season. They were at the beginning and the end. We started off with a bang by defeating El Cerrito 7-2. After that there was a letdown with our going down before every opponent but the last one.

The last game was with our bitter rival "Tam". We had to beat them! We had done it for six consecutive years and this had to be the seventh. It was. We came onto the field fighting and won the game 12-7.

"C" Basketball

Beginning the season with three veterans from the previous year's team, the mighty "C" cagers, coached by James Gulick, wound up their season by snatching a co-championship with Santa Rosa.

Although rather disappointed at having to share their victory with Santa Rosa, they forgot their sorrows when the Gold Basketballs were awarded to the top eight players. The players who received these awards were Bob Schilling, Dick De Tata, Homer Marston, Harold Weber, Dick Marowitz, Don Azevedo, Peter Turrini and Alfred Tong.

The "C" cagers started out the season by defeating Tamalpais 12 to 10, Santa Rosa 18 to 16, and Petaluma 7 to 5.

Going into the second round with these teams, the competition began to grow stronger. In the second game with Tamalpais, the victor was not decided until the last seconds of play, when our local five came through to win by one point, 17 to 16.

In the next game with Santa Rosa, our boys took a merciless beating. After defeating Santa Rosa, the first game in a thrilling overtime period, they lost the second game 4 to 24.

The last game of the season was played with Petaluma. They proved easy prey for our local boys. The final score was 25 to 5.

Lightweight Basketball

Almost, but not quite reaching the heights of their "B" pigskin brothers, San Rafael's 1946-1947 basketball Bullpups rolled through to one of their most successful seasons, winning five league contests while dropping only two.

The Bullpups first five, John Mendonsa, Bill Russell, Frank Sabbatini, Rich Nave, and Captain Jack Vallee, scored two important victories over Tam which considerably eased the pain of that lopsided last game defeat to the big Indians. The squad of 17 men included many fine reserves who gave the varsity invaluable aid.

The team counted among their victims: Analy, Petaluma, and Vallejo, and the twice defeated papooses while losing to Santa Rosa and Napa. Santa Rosa copped the championship with six wins and one loss. Unfortunately we missed a tie for that coveted Gonfalon by 6 points, the margin by which we lost to Napa.

Although we were undoubtedly the league's smallest team in regards to height, we made up for it in aggressive spirit, all-around scoring power, and speed afoot. We also had four good "eyes" in Bill Russell, Jack Vallee, Frank Sabbatini, and John Mendonsa and a reliable and accurate passer, defense and back-board ace in Rich Nave, the famous "Rock" of football season.

The Bullpups were ably coached by Paul Miller and Bob Smith who deserve a good share of the credit for the victorious "46-47" season.

Varsity Basketball

The Varsity basketball team of '47" began the season by losing the bulk of their practice games to strong city and East Bay teams.

When league play started the Bulldogs came up with an improved quintet and dumped a strong Tamalpais team 32-28. This victory made the other teams of the North Bay League take notice.

Santa Rosa chiseled a 28-25 victory over the Bulldogs in one of the roughest games ever witnessed in San Rafael.

After this defeat San Rafael met a strong Analy team and stopped them 31-20 in an easy game.

Petaluma, not putting up enough scrap, also let the Bulldogs have a 32-19 win giving them their third win to one loss.

Napa, however, gave the Bulldogs a disastrous 47-34 dumping, moving San Rafael out of the running for the title. This put a jinx on the Bulldogs which they were never able to shake off.

Vallejo took advantage of the Bulldogs with a thrilling 29-26 win over the Bulldogs.

Tamalpais handed the Bulldogs their third straight defeat by dumping them 42-25 and thus avenging an earlier Bulldog victory.

This defeat ended a partially successful season for the Bulldogs.

Baseball

San Rafael's '47" Baseball season got officially underway on March 11 when featuring a turnout of 25 hopefuls, Coach Miller put his charges through their first practice on the local diamond.

Miller was greeted by several returning members from last year's third place squad and among them three returning first-stringers of '46, Del Hughes, Walt Leptien, and Leo Andrade. Other veterans from last year's second team who have moved up to first string are: Gordon Quilici, George Grasso, Jim Baxter, and Paul Sasse. These, together with two newcomers, Frank Sabbatini and sensational freshman, Bob Schilling, constituted San Rafael's "47" version of America's national sport.

Tumbling

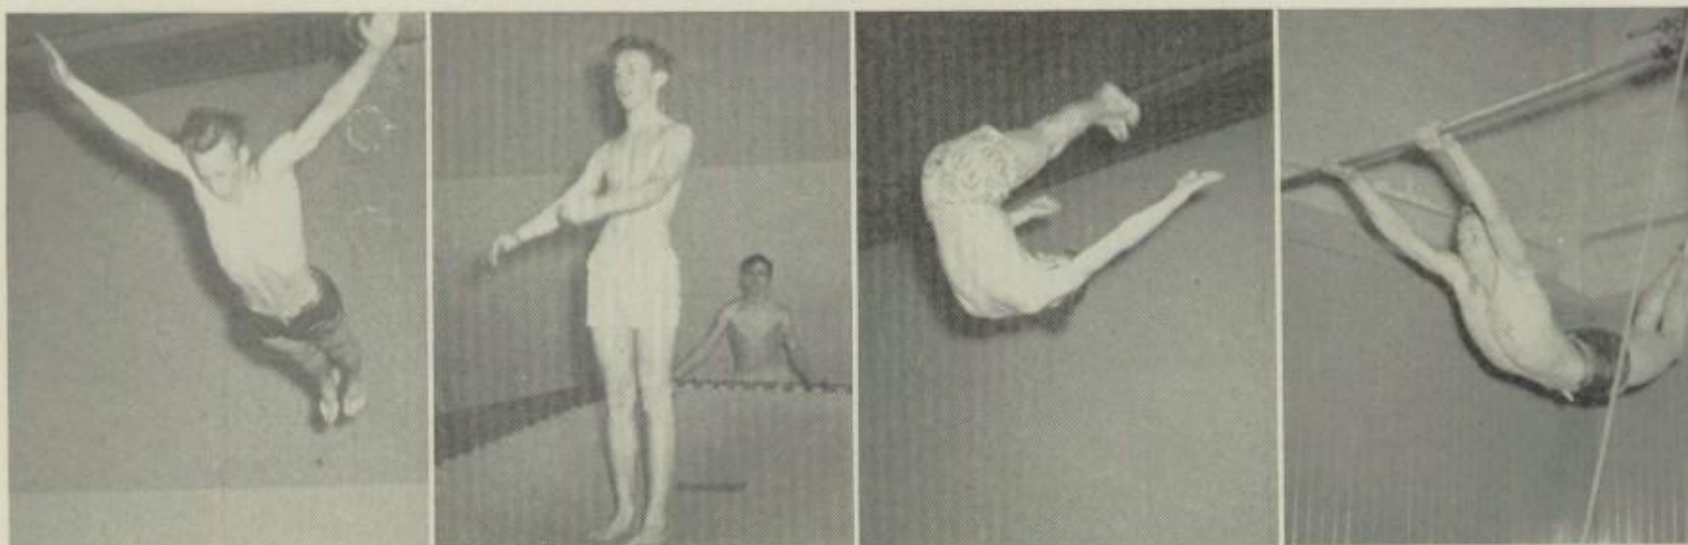

This year has been one of the most active and eventful years in the Tumbling Club's history.

School had scarcely started when the club was invited to participate in a county fair at Orland, California. The grateful tumblers were excused from school for two days for the tour which also consisted of a show at Red Bluff High School and one at Corning High School on September 21. The tour was the first ever attempted by a San Rafael tumbling team.

The highly publicized team also took part in shows at the Improvement Club on November 5, the San Rafael Military Academy on November 26, the Fiesta Dance at the U.S.O. at Sunny Hills on January 10, and Woodacre on March 14.

The team also initiated the first Minor Sports Carnival, held on November 20, 1946, to fill the club's treasury. This show was unique in that it was the first time a complete wrestling and tumbling show was given. From funds realized from the carnival, the team members traveled to the high Sierras for a skiing excursion on February 15 and 16.

Another unique experience happened when Bill Riegelhuth, first string member and co-captain, was invited to take the place of a professional tumbler in the trampoline act at a circus in Sacramento on March 21. The full tumbling show consists of trampoline, springboard, and ground acts.

Tennis

This spring, the tennis team, with but one year of experience behind them, came through to snatch a third place in the N.B.L. standings.

The first seven men in the order of ranking on the team were: 1st singles, Dick Mathews; 2nd singles, Ed Gearhart; 1st doubles, Dick Herkner and Wally Steele; 3rd singles, Don Bertucci; and 2nd doubles, Phil Schiller and Harold Hildebrant.

In the first match of the season against the Santa Rosa Panthers, who won the championship, the Bulldogs lost by a close score of 3 matches to 2.

The second match, against Vallejo, saw a change of the first two singles players, with Dick Mathews taking over the 1st singles and Ed Gearhart playing in the number two spot. This match was won by a score of 5-0, S.R. winning every event.

Against Petaluma, the Bulldogs again showed their superiority by winning 4-1, losing only the second doubles.

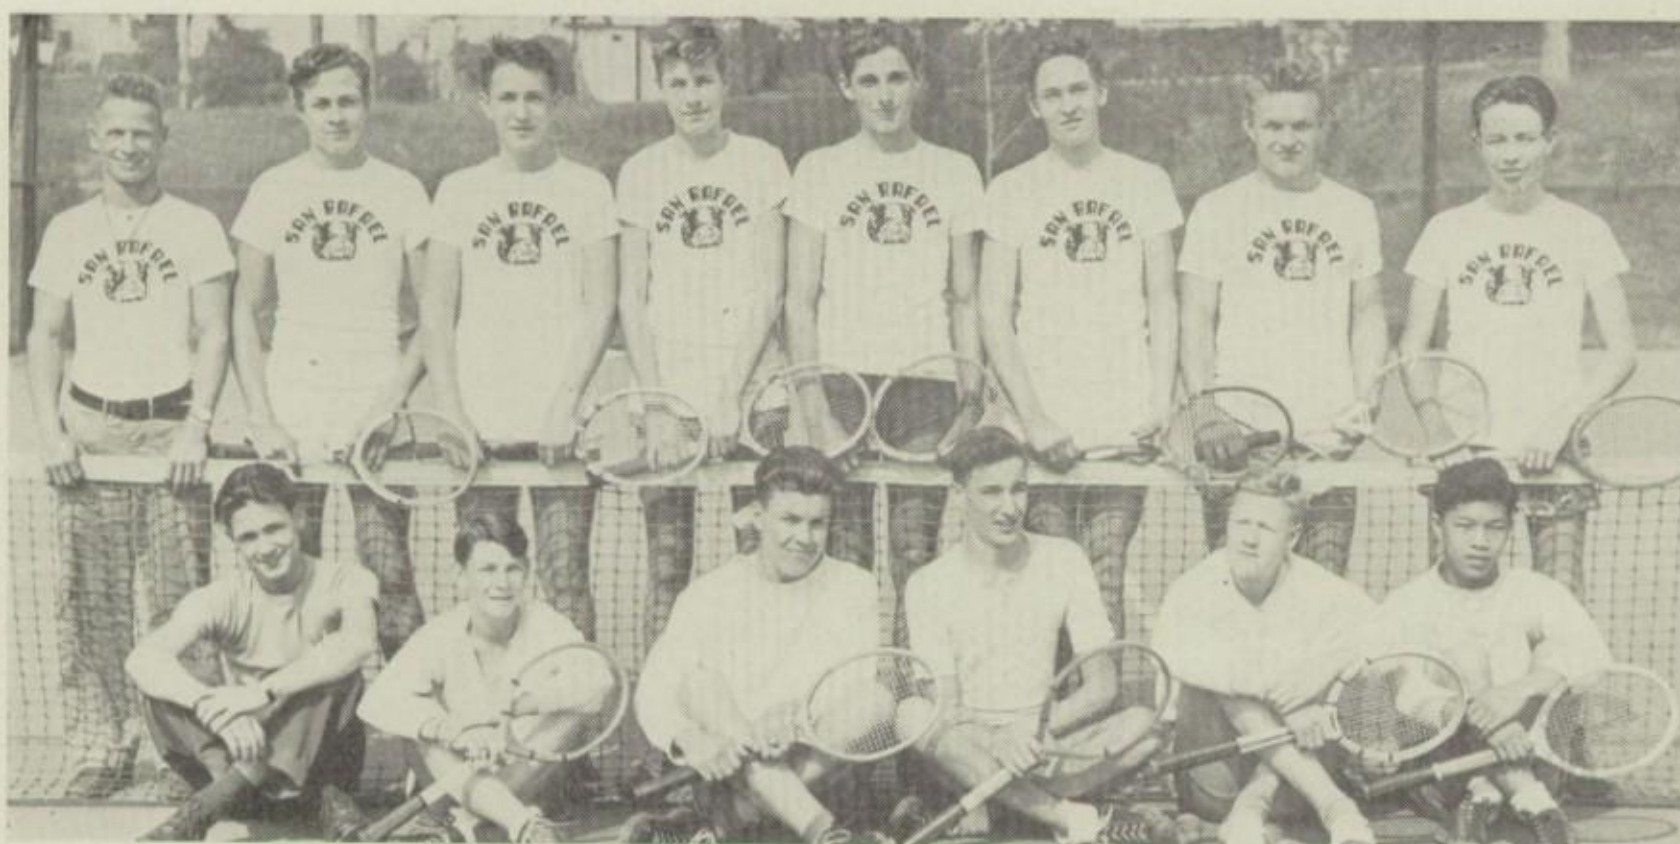

In the last match against our rivals from the slough, the heavily favored Indians won by a score of 4-1, with Dick Mathews winning the only match for San Rafael.

This spring, the team will have their course set towards another N.B.L. championship for San Rafael, and with Mr. Hines as pilot and a full, all-veteran crew on deck, it should be fair sailing.

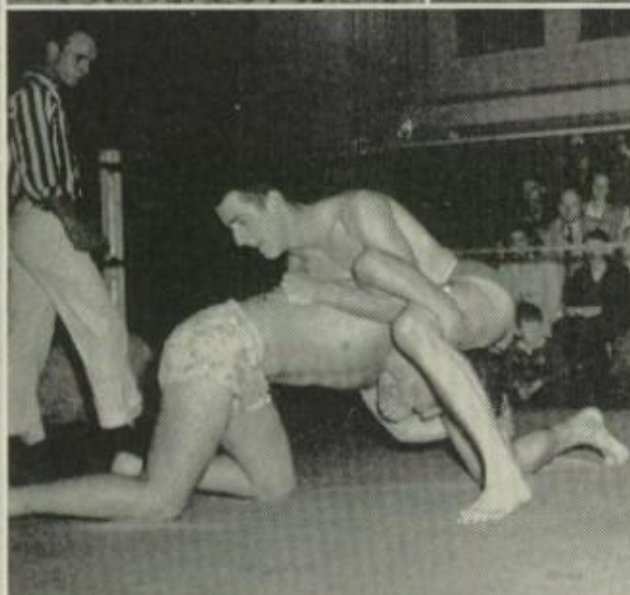

END OF SEASON FLASH! Dick Matthews won the singles championship of the North Bay League.
